Queenstown Bancorp of Maryland, Inc. Announces the Addition of Andy Cheezum to its Board of Directors

QUEENSTOWN, Md. (May 29, 2018) - Queenstown Bancorp of Maryland, Inc. and Queenstown Bank of Maryland announces the addition of Andy Cheezum to its Board of Directors.

Andy Cheezum, CHC-Vice President, General Contractor/Construction Manager with Willow Construction, LLC has joined the Board of Directors of the Queenstown Bank. Andy was appointed to serve a three-year term on both the Bank Board and the Holding Company Board. Andy joins, Patrick Thompson, Doug Pierson, Tom Davis, Tom Rhodes, Wheeler Baker, Tracy Schulz, Chad Helfenbein, Jay Friel and Kevin B. Cashen on the Boards.

“We are very excited to have Andy join us on the Board of Directors. Andy brings a tremendous amount of talent to the Board and truly understands the eastern shore and the many activities that make this a great place to live and work. Andy will be a very welcome addition as we strengthen our commitment to our community. Join me in welcoming Andy to the Board” said Kevin B. Cashen, President and Chief Executive Officer.

Andy is an Eastern Shore native, growing up in Talbot County and currently living in Centreville, Maryland with his wife and children. Andy received an AA Degree in Architectural Drafting Technology from Chesapeake College and is a graduate of the University of Maryland Eastern Shore with a B.S. in Construction Management Technology. Andy is also a Leadership Maryland graduate, member of the Associated Builders and Contractors, Inc. (ABC) and the ACE Mentor Program of Maryland’s Eastern Shore.
